DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-3, drawn to methods for preparing zinc-oligopeptides, classified in class 424, subclass 439.
- II. Claims 4-6, drawn to compositions containing zinc-oligopeptides, classified in class 556, subclass 118.

Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case, in vivo processes can make zinc-oligopeptides analogous to those producing calmodulin.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

During a telephone conversation with Joseph Kolasch on May, 2001 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of Group I, claims 1-3. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 4-6 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claim is render indefinite and unclear by the phrase "weight part(s)". It is difficult to determine the desired amounts in this claim. Presentation of the weights in ratio form is requested.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Song (US 5997908).

The instant application's independent claim is a method for preparing a zinc-oligopeptide easily absorbable by the body, comprising the steps of: chelating zinc ions with a mixture of oligopeptides to give a zinc-oligopeptide solution and concentrating the zinc-oligopeptide solution and drying the concentrate to a powder.

Song teaches preparing a composition comprising a zinc salt such as zinc sulfate and a protein hydrolysate in the form of incompletely hydrolyzed proteins such as proteoses or other partially hydrolyzed proteins. Song also teaches the solution packaged in tablet or capsule. (See Col. 4, II. Pharmaceutical Compositions.)

Song does not specifically teach the claim two limitation of one weight part zinc ions mixed based on 1,000 weight parts of the oligopeptide, however, "[W]here the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, it is not inventive to discover the optimum or workable ranges by routine experimentation." In re Aller, 220 F.2d 454, 456, 105 USPQ 233, 235 (CCPA 1955)

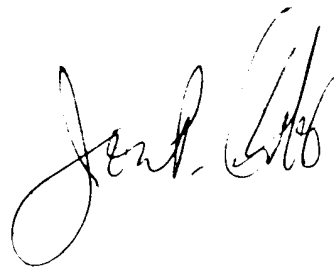

It would have been prima facie obvious to modify the preparation of Song by the use the weight ratio of claim 2 because it is not inventive to discover workable ranges. Thus, in view of the cited reference, the artisan of ordinary skill would have been motivated to have practiced the process as recited in the claims.
